

Hall of Fame criteria

One must be a current or former resident of Douglas County and have earned National Recognition for achievement in their field.

Ray Eberle: singer, actor, bandleader and entertainer

Louise Suggs: athlete, author, teacher, founder of the LPGA

Harold "Red" Palmer: inventor of the tranquilizer gun, achievements in the field of wild animals

Terry Harper: athlete, member of the Atlanta Braves baseball team, service to community and youth organizations

Susan Hutcheson: world-renowned songwriter and performer ("I Love the Night Life")

"Captain" Herb Emory: internationally recognized radio broadcaster, NASCAR personality

Bill Clary: internationally renowned magician, entertainer, and master of ceremonies

Walton Goggins: actor in film and television

Elena Meyers: 2-time winter Olympian (2010 Bronze Medal, 2014 Silver Medal, Ladies 2-man Bobsled)

Taylor Phillips: professional baseball player

Sam Memolo: host of "Shade Tree Mechanic" syndicated radio show

Mike Brookshire: award-winning musician, vocalist, songwriter, and arranger ("What About Us?" Song of the Year)

Dot Padgett: organizer of Jimmy Carter's "Peanut Brigade", assistant chief of protocol for President Carter in the White House

Peter Frost: environmentalist

B. B. Beall: songwriter, publishers of B. B. Beall and Company