X. Douglas County Terms and Conditions

A. Statement of Agreement

With the submission of a proposal, the respondent agrees that s/he has carefully examined the proposal, and agrees that it is the respondent's responsibility to request clarification on any issues in any section of the proposal with which the respondent disagrees or needs clarified. The respondent also understands that failure to mention these items during the question period or in the proposal will be interpreted to mean that the respondent is in full agreement with the terms, conditions, specifications and requirements therein. With submission of a proposal, the respondent hereby certifies: (a) that this proposal is genuine and is not made in the interest or on behalf of any undisclosed person, firm or corporation; (b) that respondent has not directly or indirectly included or solicited any other respondent to put in a false or insincere proposal; (c) that respondent has not solicited or induced any person, firm, or corporation to refrain from sending a proposal.

The respondent also understands that failure to provide required information may result in disqualification. Failure to provide administrative information may not result in disqualification. At Douglas County's discretion, Douglas County may notify the respondent that administrative information is not provided or there was an error in the information provided, and the Douglas County will allow a respondent to provide an update to the administrative information; however, the exception to this is the provision of the required GEORGIA SECURITY AND IMMIGRATION COMPLIANCE ACT AFFIDAVIT, which by Georgia Law requires disqualification of the response. The above changes mentioned to administrative information would be considered allowable as these would be limited to changes which do not affect the information which the evaluators use to score the respondents. Failure of a respondent to provide the specific administrative information as required in the notice will result in disqualification. Douglas County will not allow updates to qualifications to be provided to avoid disqualification as this would allow a respondent to modify its proposal and alter the information which evaluators would score. The above changes related to qualifications would not be allowable as these would allow changes which do affect the information which the evaluators use to score the respondents' proposal.

B. Joint Venture Proposals, Sub Consultants and Vendors

Douglas County does not desire to enter into "joint venture" agreements with multiple firms. In the event two or more firms desire to "joint venture", it is strongly recommended that one incorporated firm propose and maintain status as the prime respondent with the remaining companies participating as sub consultants.

Numerous tasks involving different projects may be assigned simultaneously. Tasks shall be able to proceed in tandem. It is not the intent of this contract to issue sequential tasks.

Douglas County does not guarantee any work or any specified amount of work for the selected firms. Work on projects is dependent upon the needs of the Douglas County and allowable and approved budgets during the life of the contract. Douglas County reserves the right to competitively bid any project determined at its sole discretion to not be a qualifying project under this contract. While the agreement is in force, various tasks will be assigned to the firm(s) through a series of project work orders, which will define the work and include a scope of services. Compensation for each project work order will be negotiated on a task order basis.

Douglas County desires that consultant firms selected under this contract abstain from entering into consultant contracts with private development firms or companies' projects that are within Douglas County for the duration of the contract time. This provision applies to the consultant's project team only. The selected consultant's project team for this contract is expected to not perform any private development work within Douglas County that may be considered a conflict of interest as determined by the Douglas County.
